CSQ Short Courses Subsidies—Explained

Construction Skills Queensland (CSQ) is an independent, not-for-profit, industry-funded body supporting employers, workers, apprentices, trainees and career seekers in the building and construction industry.

CSQ provides funding to reduce the financial obstacle to training, making upskilling an affordable option for more individuals in the construction industry. CSQ-funded training is delivered by a range of selected registered training organisations (RTOs) across Queensland, including Harness Energy.

Terms & Conditions: To be eligible for CSQ funding, participants must meet all the participant and program eligibility requirements, as listed on the following page. These eligibility requirements include, but are not limited to, right to work, nature of current work, nature of prior work, and any current period of non-work. CSQ can change participant and program eligibility during the program term, and between funding years. CSQ caps funding available to organisations, which may limit the availability of some courses. Limits apply to the number of courses you can undertake during the offer period (1/10/2024 - 30/9/2025). Lifetime limits also apply to the total quantity of courses you can undertake with CSQ funding. Additional equipment costs may apply. Group courses are priced per person (exclusive of any special equipment hire). Subsidies are not available for units of competency where the participant has already undertaken the training. Locations where courses can be delivered are limited to the geographical areas of Greater Brisbane, Darling Downs - Toowoomba, and Central Queensland. Pricing is correct at the time of publishing but is subject to change—check the website for the latest pricing information. Gap Fees indicated are the net cost to participants after all funding claims. Courses must be fully paid for at the full rate, indicated on the Harness website, prior to course start.
